

The Ethics Committee of the NYSBA Dispute Resolution Section Presents:

Cutting Edge Ethics Issues When Dealing With New Technologies

Tuesday March 5, 2024 at 6:00 pm

(networking reception to follow!)

In person at the American Arbitration Association
(150 East 42nd Street) and online via Zoom

David Singer, Esq.

Tracey Frisch, Esq.

Bruce Green, Esq.

Peter Michaelson, Esq.

Kaylin Whittingham, Esq.

Complimentary informational program – registration required:

<https://nysba.org/events/the-nysba-dr-sections-ethics-committee-presents-cutting-edge-ethics-issues-when-dealing-with-new-technologies/>

Program Description:

A panel of experts will discuss cutting edge issues in dispute resolution involving new technologies, including artificial intelligence, remote hearings, internet usage and more. The panel includes Bruce Green, Professor of Ethics at Fordham Law School; Peter Michaelson, Michaelson ADR Chambers, LLC, Tracey B. Frisch, Senior Counsel at the AAA, Kaylin Whittingham, Whittingham Law, and David C. Singer (Co-Chair of the Ethics Committee), SingerADR Neutral Services.